Clinical Case Reports is different to other case report journals. Our aim is to directly improve global health outcomes and share clinical knowledge using case reports to convey important best practice messages. If your submission has an important clinical message we would like to read it! Clinical Case Reports also has a close relationship with the Cochrane Collaboration and case report submissions which relate to Cochrane or other systematic reviews are a priority for the Journal.

All articles published by Clinical Case Reports are fully open access: immediately freely available to read, download and share. To cover the cost of publishing – including administration of peer review, production, marketing, online hosting and development of online tools - Clinical Case Reports charges a publication fee.

Active members of American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists (ACVO) benefit from a 10% discount on the article publication charge for Clinical Case Reports when they submit a paper directly to the journal. The usual price for publishing in the new open access journal is $800 / £520 / €600. – you pay just $720 / £468 / €540.
